

Lincoln, Neb.—Gov. Aldrich, Neb., whom Roosevelt named as one of committee to organize new party, may not serve.

Cincinnati.—Passenger train struck auto, near Latonia race-track. Four hurt, one may die.

Vienna.—Intoxicated Italian reveals plot to assassinate Archduke Joseph Ferdinand. Bomb found in Italian's home.

New York.—Alfred L. Seligman, youngest member of famous banking family, killed in auto collision. 2 badly hurt.

White Plains, N. Y.—Evelyn Nesbit Thaw said that Edna Goodrich, divorced wife of Nat Goodwin, once sued Harry Thaw for breach of promise but dropped it before it came to light.

Cincinnati.—Mrs. Lucy Tillman granted divorce from Benj. R. Tillman, son of Sen. "Pitchford Ben" of So. Carolina. Gross neglect. Awarded custody of 2 small children.

Vienna, Ga.—Mrs. R. E. Jordan stabbed and killed by her negress cook, Anna Barkdale, for slight rebuke. Head nearly severed with carving knife. Negress arrested, guarded from lynching.

New York.—Roosevelt arrived from Chicago today. No crowd at station. Went back to work at the Outlook office.

New York.—Lincoln Beachey, aviator, sued for divorce by Mrs. May Beachey, who says he has a sweetheart in every city he ever visited. Married in 1906. No children.

Menominee, Mich.—Secylla Horde, contractor, killed, and Samuel Boyar badly hurt. Auto overturned.

Neenah, Wis.—Mrs. J. Bohan and 2 daughters saved, when boat capsized, by Ralph Smith and William Dehow. Boys then dived and recovered purse containing $75 that women had lost.

Owatonna, Minn.—Oliver P. Stewart, prohibition candidate for president, injured when auto in which he was riding turned turtle.

Wabash, Ind.—Alfred Lambert, 14, jumped from haymow and landed on some dynamite caps in hip pocket. Dead.

Washington.—Paul Hamilton, aviation instructor U. S. army school, College Park, Md., fell while flying about 100 feet in the air. May die.

London.—Joseph Stransky, conductor N. Y. Philharmonic society, married to Johanna Doxrud, daughter of Capt. Doxrud, Red Star Line. Bride's aunt, Mrs. Lumas, gave couple $1,000,000.

London.—Sir Lawrence Alma Tadema, famous artist, is dying. Abscess of stomach.

Philadelphia.—Robert S. Murphy, former lieutenant governor Pennsylvania and son late Francis Murphy, temperance worker, died suddenly.

Cincinnati.—Robert Goldman, son of Louis J. Goldman, millionaire and Yale graduate, has applied to Mayor Hunt for a job. Wants to work for nothing.

Johnstown, Pa.—Rev. Herman Kauffman, pastor German Lutheran church, finding pulpit un-